POLICY ON PREVENTION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT AT WORKPLACE

Bajaj Auto Ltd. has always held in highest regard the dignity of its employees. Our Code of Conduct specifies guidelines on professional behaviour to be practiced at the workplace. It also testifies our commitment to provide a safe, secure and productive work environment to all our employees. All employees are expected to maintain decorum at the workplace, respect the dignity of co-workers and contribute in making the work environment conducive for achieving the Company's goals & objectives. We reaffirm that the Company shall act as per all applicable laws and guidelines including the legislation titled Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal of Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace Act 2013 by Government of India. This policy on Prevention of Sexual Harassment at Workplace (POSH Policy) reiterates the intention of the Company to prevent sexual harassment at workplace.

1. Objectives of the POSH policy:

- To prevent sexual harassment at workplace.
- To spread awareness among employees about sexual harassment and consequences of violations.
- To provide guidelines and mechanism of effectively dealing with complaints of sexual harassment in case such incidents happen.

2. Applicability:

Workplace means all plants, locations and regional offices of the Company, including any place visited by the employee arising out of or during the course of the employment including transportation provided by the company for undertaking such journey.

This Policy is applicable to all employees, including trainees, apprentices and probationers of the Company at all its locations. Redressal under this policy can also be sought by visitors/ employees of business partners who deal with the Company's employees and come across any such incident.

4. Internal Committee (IC)

In order to help implementation of this policy, an Internal Committee has been constituted. Please find their details in Appendix I.

The IC will investigate the complaints of sexual harassment, record the testimonies & evidences submitted by all parties and recommend appropriate redressal / disciplinary action to CHRO. For the purpose of making inquiry, IC shall have the power to summon witness and demand production of documents / evidences required for the investigation. The IC will submit an annual report to the Company/ Local Complaints Committee appointed by the government.

5. Grievance Redressal Procedure:

- 5.1 An aggrieved person can make a written complaint to any member of the IC or by e-mail to bajajauto@ethicshelpline.co.in within three months of the occurrence of the incident.
- 5.2 IC will investigate and submit their recommendation to CHRO within 90 days from receipt of the grievance.
- 5.3 CHRO will decide on the disciplinary action after discussing with the 'Enforcement Committee' and disciplinary action will be implemented within 60 days from the date of receipt of the recommendation from IC.
- 5.4 The aggrieved party will be informed of the decision and action taken by the IC.
- 5.5 In case the aggrieved person so desires, the company shall assist in filing the complaint under the IPC or any other law.
- 5.6 The Company shall ensure the confidentiality of complaints and ensure that the privacy of the complainant is safeguarded.
- 5.7 In case of a complaint against any of the members of the IC, CHRO will appoint an independent committee to investigate and report the findings to him/her and will take appropriate action. Till the enquiry and action is complete in this case, the member against whom the complaint has been received will cease to function as member of IC.

6. Disciplinary Action:

- 6.1 If any employee is found guilty of sexual harassment, appropriate disciplinary action against the said employee shall be taken. The action may include any one or more :-
 - a. Warning
 - b. Monetary fine
 - c. Loss of promotion and/or stoppage of increment
 - d. Transfer
 - e. Termination of service
- 6.2 In case the IC feels the need for transferring the complainant during the investigation to any other location as a result of the incident, the Company shall assist in such transfer.
- 6.3 If the IC finds the allegations to be wilfully false, fabricated with malicious intentions, appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against the complainant.
- 6.4 As responsible citizens and employees, it is our duty to uphold the highest values and together create a work atmosphere that is a benchmark for workplace discipline and decorum.
