3. Scope

This document applies to all activities, processes, systems, and personnel involved in the processing of customer personal data related to connected electric vehicles to ensure compliance with applicable data privacy/protection regulation in all personal data processing activities across Bangladesh, Brazil, Colombia, Greece, Indonesia, Kenya, Mexico, Nepal, Philippines, Portugal, Saudi Arabia, Spain, Sri Lanka, Thailand, Turkey, UAE.

Please refer appendix b for country specific regulation. This appendix needs to be monitored every six months and any changes to the respective country specific privacy related regulation should be incorporated.

4. Roles and Responsibilities

a. Data Protection Officer (DPO)

The DPO is the central figure in the Data Privacy Office and holds the primary responsibility for overseeing and ensuring the organization's data protection strategy and compliance with relevant data privacy/protection regulation.

Key Responsibilities of the DPO:

- Overall Data Privacy Governance:
  - Oversee the organization's data privacy program, ensuring it complies with global and local data protection regulations.
  - Ensure the implementation of data protection policies, standards, and procedures across all business units.
  - Report directly to BAL MD/Relevant Authority on data privacy matters and risks.
  - Maintain regular communication with the organization's higher management through risk management committee (RMC), steering committee meetings or equivalent channels to ensure that data privacy risks are discussed at the highest levels of management and are prioritized appropriately.
- Strategic Leadership:

- Provide high-level leadership and strategic direction to the Data Privacy Office, aligning the privacy strategy with business goals and objectives.
- Ensure privacy is integrated into business decision-making and across various departments (e.g., marketing, IT, legal, and HR).
- Risk Management:
  - Conduct annual privacy risk assessments to identify privacy-related risks and ensure mitigation plans are documented.
- Training and Awareness:
  - Lead training programs on data privacy, raising awareness about compliance and best practices across the organization.
- Incident Management:
  - Lead the response to data breaches as outlined in the BAL Personal Data Breach Notification and Incident Response Procedure.
  - Oversee and provide guidance for implementation of corrective actions post-breach to prevent recurrence.
- Liaison with Regulators:
  - Serve as the primary point of contact for regulatory authorities and ensure the organization adheres to regulatory requirements, including audits and inspections.
  - Manage and respond to investigations and inquiries from data protection authorities.

b. Privacy Manager (DPO Office)

The Privacy Manager within the DPO office typically manages the broader privacy program and leads strategic initiatives to ensure that data privacy is incorporated into business processes, technologies, and products.

Key Responsibilities of the Privacy Manager (DPO Office):

- Cross-Functional Collaboration:
  - Collaborate with the General Counsel and Legal team to interpret complex data privacy/protection regulation and ensure their application across the organization.
  - Collaborate on the review of contracts and legal agreements, including data processing agreements (DPAs), ensuring they align with legal obligations.
  - Liaison with Legal to ensure that contracts with third-party vendors and service providers include appropriate data privacy provisions (e.g., DPAs) to protect personal data.
  - Liaison with the Infosec team to ensure that privacy considerations are integrated into IT systems and infrastructure from the outset.
  - Ensure that security measures such as encryption, secure storage, and data masking are implemented to safeguard personal data.
  - Collaborate with BU Heads to integrate data privacy into day-to-day business operations, products, services, and projects.
  - Ensure that business processes, such as customer data collection, processing, and sharing, align with data privacy/protection regulation and organizational policies.
- Policy and Governance:
  - Develop global data privacy policies, including for data retention, access, and third-party relationships.
- Privacy Risk Reporting:

- Monthly report to the Data Protection Officer on the state of data privacy within the organization, highlighting areas of concern and recommending mitigation strategies.

c. Privacy Champion for International Business

The Privacy Champion for International Business is responsible for ensuring that the organization's data privacy practices align with the data protection regulatory requirements in all international markets where the organization operates. This role involves adapting the global privacy strategy to local and regional data privacy/protection regulation, ensuring consistent privacy protection across different jurisdictions.
