

HR / 25 December 2025

Maternity Leave Policy

Objective:

- To provide maternity benefits to female employees in accordance with The Maternity Benefit (Amendment) Act 2017.

Applicability:

- This policy will be applicable to all female employees of the Company.

Eligibility:

- Expecting Female, Commissioning Mothers (Biological mother who uses her egg to create an embryo implanted in any other woman i.e. who have a child through surrogate mother) and a Female who legally adopts a child below the age of 3 months.
- Female employees covered under the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948 and scheme will be eligible to get benefit under this policy until she becomes qualified to claim maternity benefit under the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948.

Maternity Leaves:

- A female employee will be entitled for maximum of 26 weeks' maternity leave of which not more than 8 weeks shall precede the date of her expected delivery.
- A female employee having two or more than two surviving children will be entitled to 12 weeks of maternity leave of which not more than 6 weeks shall precede the date of her expected delivery.
- In case of miscarriage or medical termination of pregnancy, a female employee will be entitled for 6 weeks of maternity leave.
- In case of tubectomy operation the female employee can avail a leave of 2 weeks immediately following the day of her tubectomy operation.
- In case of illness arising out of pregnancy, delivery, premature birth of child, medical termination of pregnancy, miscarriage or tubectomy operation, the female employee would be eligible for additional leave with wages for a period of 1 month on production of such proofs. This can be availed in addition to applicable maternity leaves mentioned above.
- A female employee, who legally adopts a child below the age of 3 months or a commissioning mother shall be entitled to maternity leave for a period of 12 weeks from the date the child is handed over to the adopting mother or the commissioning mother.
- If the concerned female employee wants to avail her accumulated CL/CSL/EL along with maternity leave, the same shall be allowed.
- All the above Maternity leaves will be paid leaves.
- Maternity leaves cannot be encashed or cannot be adjusted against CL or EL.
- On completion of maternity leave, the employee shall resume duties forthwith.

Other salient benefits:

- In addition to leave mentioned above, a female employee will also be entitled for medical bonus of Rs. 3500 if no pre-natal confinement and post-natal care is provided by the company.
- No female employee shall be given any work of arduous nature or involves long hours of standing, during the four weeks immediately preceding the period of six weeks, before the date of her expected delivery.

Modalities:

- The female employees will be required to submit a written application, with necessary documents like medical certificate giving expected date of delivery etc., to HR through her Manager informing that she will be proceeding on maternity leave at least 1 month before the commencement of maternity leave.
- Female Employees taking leave beyond the period specified above for any reason arising out of pregnancy or otherwise, will be required to seek Special approval for the same.

Note: Please note that the intent of this policy is to provide all the benefits applicable as per The Maternity Benefit (Amendment) Act 2017 and amendments as applicable from time to time. However, if a situation arises which is not mentioned in this policy, the act shall be referred.

Regards

Human Resources

The management reserves the right to modify or withdraw this policy, in part or full, with or without prior information to the employees. Any exercise of Company discretion, wherever provided for, in this policy, shall be binding on the employee. In cases where special considerations arise and need to be carried out resulting in deviations from the provisions of this policy, prior approval of CHRO shall be required.